Chaplain's Message

Msgr Joaquin Bazan
Chaplain

Rejoice and Exalt!

Documents written by the Pope are traditionally named according to the first few words and Pope Francis' third apostolic exhortation, released this past April, is no exception. Gaudete et Exsultate (Latin for Rejoice and Exalt) is a timely title for us who continue to celebrate our Lord's Resurrection in this Easter Season. While apostolic exhortations summarize the fruits of synods, as Amoris Laetitia did with the Synods on Family in 2014 and 2015, the Pope can also use them to encourage God's people – us – to a deeper spiritual and Christian life. Gaudete et exsultate does exactly that: Pope Francis reminds us that "Jesus wants our happiness and wants us to be saints. He does not want us to settle for a bland and mediocre existence."

All are called to holiness, but how are we to grow in holiness? Among the many ways, the Pope highlights that often we grow by the smaller gestures each day. Take for example, the Vietnamese Cardinal, Francis-Xavier van Thuan. While imprisoned by the communist government, he chose "to live the present moment, filling it to the brim with love... [accomplishing] ordinary actions in an extraordinary way." So where do we start? By seeking to act with a greater intentionality for a love of God wherever we find ourselves throughout our day.

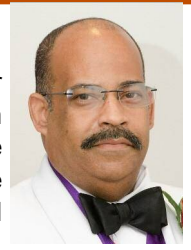

Pope Francis' personal, relatable and easy-to-follow style, combined with the practical guidance offered concerning our own response to sainthood makes Gaudete et exsultate a definite read for this summer!

Grand Knight's Message

Worthy Brothers and Columbian Families:

May and June are upon us, the cool weather is behind us, and the spring flowers are in bloom. This is the time for the crack of the bat and smell of charcoal and burgers on the grill. It is the time of new beginning and growth.

SK José Rivera

As I pen my last Knight Cap article, I look back on my year as your Grand Knight. Thank you my brothers for entrusting me with the guidance of our council and our programs. This year, as in the past, 2809 has done great things. We have continued many of our great programs from the past, like the Point one K for Special Olympics, the program at Duckworth School, our great masses with Msgr. Bazan, and one of our most quiet programs yet still running strong, Bread for Our Brothers. This year we started three new events the priest dinner in September, the pilgrimage to the Saint Pope John Paul II and Coats for Kids, and like in the past we add a few new men to the usher staff at the national Shrine.

As I begin to hand over the reins to the new Grand Knight, I ask your support for him as you have done for me. I'm very confident he will lead us forward to many great events and charitable works.

To my fellow officers thank you for your years of service to the Council and to the Knights of Columbus. Without your help to be Grand Knight of such a large Council would be very difficult. But as we all know many hands make for light work.

Finally, I would like to thank my wife Amancia and my daughters Sarah and Lizkatherine for their support and help. Thank you Amancia for giving me the time to do this special service for my Council. Thanks Sarah and Liz for the afternoons in the snack shack and the help you both gave to the council.

With this I say goodbye to my year as Grand Knight, but not to my commitment to 2809 or the Knights of Columbus. See you at the ball field, the grove and the club house but most importantly at our charitable events.

Vivat Jesu,
José Rivera

Culture of Life Corner

Excerpts from Maryland State Council
Prolife News, May 2018

40 Days for Life The Spring 2018 campaign for 40 Days for Life is over, and it produced continued positive results. In the summer of 2004, four young people gathered in a small room to pray for guidance on how they should oppose a Planned Parenthood clinic that was operating in the university-town of College Station, Texas. The answer was fast and pray for 40 days outside of the clinic. And so, the now semi-annual prayer-filled events was begun. In these 14 years, 5,605 total campaigns have been conducted in 769 cities in 50 countries, with some 750,000 individuals participating. But success is more than activities. The movement has saved 14,643 children from abortion, closed 96 abortion facilities and convinced 177 abortion workers to quit the industry. God is truly at work. Will you help in the fall campaign?

Witnessing in Bethesda Praying outside of LeRoy Carhart's abortion facility in the Medical Building at the Wildwood Shopping Center in Bethesda is a year-round effort, regardless of the weather. A group assembles every Monday from 9:00 to 11:00 AM. There also is a group gathering for prayer on Tuesday evenings at 6:30 PM, and on Wednesday mornings at 9:00 AM. For more information, contact Jill Perry at 301-924-3838, x204 or 240-907-9653, or Missy Smith at 202-288-4984. For continuing updates, check PrayforBethesda.com.

Results of Maryland Legislative Session There were six bills dealing with pro-life issues that came before the Maryland General Assembly in the last session which ended on April 9. Only one was passed by both the Senate and House and signed into law by the Governor. That was the Child Conceived Without Consent-Termination of Parental Rights Act (also referred to as Rape Survivor Family Protection Act). The law removes paternity rights from any father whose child was conceived due to his act of rape. The other five bills did not get through the legislative process. They are 1) Pregnant Inmates-Medical Care Act, which would have allowed abortion for prisoners; 2) Abortions-Viability Act, which would have defined viability to begin at 24-weeks of gestation; 3) Pain-Capable Unborn Child Protection Act, which would have prohibited abortions 24 weeks after fertilizations; 4) Unborn Child Protection From Dismemberment Abortion Act of 2018, which would have prohibited dismemberment abortions; and 5) Abortions Sought by Minors - Parental Consent Act. For more information, check www.mdrtl.org/legislation.html

Fun and Fellowship at Maryland Right to Life Banquet Maryland Right to Life will hold its 8th annual Spring Banquet on Thursday, May 10, at Martin's West in Windsor Mill, MD. Join in an evening of fun and fellowship to support Maryland's only single-issue pro-life group working to create and support life-affirming legislation in the state capital. There will be cocktails and hors d'oeuvres, buffet dinner, silent auction, raffles, live music and surprise visits from special guests and Maryland lawmakers. The keynote speaker is Dr. Alveda King, niece of Martin Luther King, Jr., who is a pro-life activist, author, former state representative, and voice for the Silent No More Awareness Campaign. For more information and to purchase tickets, go to www.mdrtlbanquet.org or call 410-269-6397.

Prayers Needed Action without prayers will not be effective. Will your council or church host a pro-life Mass? The State Council is available to help with publicity, suggestions, and after-Mass speakers. Even if you do not need help, let us know of your activity. For more information, contact Mike Furst at mfurst1@yahoo.com.

Cemeteries of the Innocents As of May 1, there is no Cemetery of the Innocents standing. To schedule an installation, contact Jim McFillin at jimmcfillin@cs.com.

District Deputy's Message

Greetings
District 10 Worthy Officers, Brothers,
Lovely Ladies and Beautiful Children,

*Keith Hurst
District Deputy*

The Maryland State Council website (www.kofc-md.org) has a wealth of information concerning the activities happening on the State level, just as does your council website (www.kofc2809.org). The State Council participates in many of the same activities as your Council, but over a larger geographic area. Many of the events, trips and activities are open to you as a council member and your families.

As the membership lottery is drawing to a close, I would like to share with you a memo from Al Cala, Director of Membership Development.

Pax Christi,

Keith Hurst, PGK, #2809, DD#10

H-301-262-6787/C-301-674-7290

In response to the Holy Father's exhortation to strengthen the Domestic Church and the Order's strong commitment to families, the Supreme Knight announced at the Mid-Year Meeting of State Deputies, this lottery incentive for 10 couples to attend the World Meeting in Dublin, Ireland with all expenses paid.

Here's how it works: beginning December 1, 2017, every time that you recruit a member into the Order through June 30, 2018, your name will go into a drawing, and on July 1, 2018, ten names will be drawn at random. If you are a winner, we will notify you and your wife immediately so you can plan for this once in a lifetime opportunity to interact with families from all over the world. When you return, you can become a beacon of light for other families in your council, community, and state.

The more men you recruit, the greater the probability you will have to win this trip. For more information on the World Meeting of Families 2018, please visit www.worldmeeting2018.ie.

Al Cala,

Director of Membership Development.

Fraternal Benefits

Bob Monagan, PGK-FICF-LUTCF

Update Your Beneficiaries

Sometimes it is easy to overlook the simplest of things.

Take, for example, the beneficiaries on your life insurance policies. If your policy was applied for and issued several years ago, it may very well be that the person you originally selected as the beneficiary is no longer the person you would want to receive the policy proceeds. If you bought the policy when you were single, for example, you may have named your parents as beneficiaries. If you have since married, your policies should be updated to reflect your spouse as beneficiary. Maybe you've had children since, who are not named on the policies.

Most people list a primary beneficiary, who is specifically designated as the first in priority to receive policy proceeds. We also encourage the naming of a contingent beneficiary, an alternate person designated to receive policy proceeds, usually in the event that the original beneficiary pre-deceases the insured.

I routinely call all of my policyholders for annual review appointments, usually near the anniversary date of your policy – that is, the date it was originally issued. One of the matters that I'll discuss during this review is the status two nine nine eight six five six of your beneficiary designations. If they need updating, and they often do, I can complete the paperwork during that appointment.

I look forward to meeting with each of you to discuss your family's needs

SUPREME COUNCIL INFORMATION

The Knights of Columbus is seeking to strengthen Catholic families by helping men and women understand their mission as both spouses and parents in terms of a "domestic church."

We hope more Catholic families will appreciate in their daily lives how, in the words of Paul VI, "the marriage of those who have been baptized ... represents the union of Christ and His Church" (8).

At times, this will require Catholic couples to act heroically. At times, all of us will respond imperfectly. But this should only make us more, not less, determined to accompany and assist each other in fulfilling the noble mission given to our families. The safeguarding of this mission has been entrusted, through Father McGivney's foresight, to our noble Order.

-Supreme Knight Carl Anderson

Mary, Queen Of The Knights

*Our Lady, Queen of the Knights, bless all the activities of our Order. Keep us true to the pledge to extend the kingship of thy Devine Son on earth. Through Thy intercession, win for us the grace ever to exemplify in our public and private lives, the virtues which should characterize those specifically dedicated to the service of the heavenly court.
Make us always aware that as your Knights we are constantly observed, our faith judged and our Order appreciated. Accept, O Mary, this renewed pledge of fealty and devotion of thy servants, the Knights of Columbus.*

Hidden Member Number: Somewhere in this issue is the seven digit membership number of one lucky Knight. The number is spelled out in words. If you are that lucky member, a prize awaits you if you contact the Grand Knight before the next issue of the Knight Cap. Richard Chandler could have been a winner had he noticed his number in the previous issue. Good Luck!
