MARCH/APRIL 2024

Chaplain's Message

Msgr Joaquin Bazan

The strength and beauty of our Catholic faith remarkably unfolds during the period of Easter in several major events. Each year at this time, Catholics everywhere prepare themselves to share in the sufferings of our Lord on our behalf and the joy of His resurrection for our salvation. Walk with me in this article through the highlights of those moments of faith.

When Jesus knew that his hour had come for Him to depart out of this world, He instituted the eucharist... a gift of Himself at the last supper. This is significant. For "Having loved us to the end" (John 3:1). Jesus was giving us the key to His fathers kingdom, Himself. "Take all of you and eat, this is my body which will be given up to you." Additionally, He said "Take all of you and drink, this is my blood, the blood of the new and everlasting covenant which will be shed for you and for all, so that sins can be forgiven, do this in memory of me." We are extremely privileged to be invited to His supper at every Mass to receive His special grace.

As the hour drew closer, Jesus' state of being manifested the power of prayer. What happens here prepares us and gives us the strength we need to walk with our Lord to His death. He said to Peter, James and John "My soul is very sorrowful, even to death; remain here and watch." And He prayed. (March 13:34-36). In those words to the disciples, Jesus asks us to be strong and remain with Him to the end.

The hour is consummated. What takes place next is dramatic... A test of our faith and strength. Jesus is scourged at the pillar (John 19:1). His body which He had earlier given up for us is now broken and His precious blood, which He had offered for the forgiveness of sins, is now being shed. He was greatly sorrowful as the soldiers wove a crown of thorns and put it on His head in preparation for His final journey to death.

By Himself and sorrowful, Jesus took up the cross. Moments later, He was crucified and with a loud voice He said, "Father, into your hands I commend my spirit." With these words, He breathed His last (Luke 23:46). We are saddened. We are deeply affected by the humiliation, torture and brutal crucifixion of our Lord.

But events of the last day, the third day after, would wipe away our sorrow and fill our hearts with exceeding joy. The angel said to the women "Do not be afraid; for I know that you seek Jesus who was crucified. He is not here, for He is risen, as He said." (Matthew 28:5-6) Indeed He has risen! Let us rejoice and proclaim the beauty of our faith.

God Bless!

Grand Knight's Message

Fraternal Greetings,

As we enter the season of Lent we are reminded of the evangelism and Passion of Jesus Christ. The term evangelism was based on the Greek word of Evangelium, or Good News. But, this term was then meant by the Romans to announce a military victory by the Roman Emperor. To be used by a young itinerant preacher who arrived in Jerusalem on the back of a donkey could have been laughed at had he not attached such a wide following. He attracted first resentment, then anger of established religious leaders. Perhaps the resentment of the Pharisee and Sadducces of ancient times was not unlike the animosity toward the Christians and Catholics in modern times. The animosity reminds us how special is our fraternal order and our Church community.

Vivat Jesus,

Dear Brother Knights and Ladies of the Knights,

We have to be positive and loving when confronting those who believe in abortion.

Democratic Leader Nancy Pelosi said, "We are the party of abortion."

In addition, 82 prolife advocates were arrested in a major city last week. They stormed a building that provided abortions. One member blocked the doorway at the clinic. These people were arrested and charged with prison sentences.

We must tell pro-life advocates about the available help from various church organizations with help before and after birth. Medical care, including sonograms, food and clothing and housing are available.

Very respectfully,
SK Francis A. Hunter
Pro-Life Advocate #2809

Important Notice

Upon the death of a Knight of Columbus, relatives should contact one of the following:

Grand Knight, Paul Wood, 202-269-9583

Financial Secretary's Message

Brothers,

As we roll into the new year of 2024, I have been hard at work with Dues. The second notices went out this week, and did the first round of Membership Cards for those who have come current for 2024. Please, if you haven't paid your dues already, it's not too late and you pay me or go through the council website and pay electronically.

At this point, I have good news/bad news r toeport for our Membership . First the good news is that we have received a reactivation, we will be voting on at the next council meeting. The bad news is that right now we also have not brought in any new Brothers either. Please remember I am not preaching numbers but in order to keep the council going and growing, we need new members to join us.

As to the councils well being, I am happy to report the Council is in good standing with both Supreme and the State. Brother Joe Cole and I have completed the Audit which was reviewed by the Trustees Monday and sent into Supreme. So as we get things rolling we should be good and solvent for the new year.

Thank you again my Brothe Knights for your faith in me to carry out this role and working with me in it. I have had some new life lessons in this role including going toe to toe with the IRS already, and sending out almost 500 dues notices. It is all good though in the name of Fraternity. Remember the Knights Live on with all of us in Faith, Family and Fraternity.

Regards,

May They Rest in Peace

Thanks be to God that we did not lose any Knights of Columbus members or family members this period.

District Deputy's Message

Harold Sanders
District Deputy

Greetings My Brothers,

Congratulations to the Maryland State Council as it completes its 125th year anniversary on March 2, 2024. The State Council was instituted in March of 1889. Our Founders Day Mass, on Sunday, March 17th @ 4:00pm, will be celebrating the 142nd anniversary of the Knights of Columbus. Online registration for the 2024 State Convention in Annapolis, MD continues for the Grand Knight, delegates and any brothers wishing to attend the convention. This is an election year.

As we continue our 40 days of fasting and prayer during this Lenten season, let us reflect on Our Lord's life, death, burial and prepare for his glorious resurrection at Easter.

Your Delta Drives are upcoming within the next few weeks. You should not be recruiting for numbers. You are recruiting to help sustain and keep your council strong. That Catholic gentleman that is waiting for someone to ask him to become a Knight of Columbus may be your council's future Grand Knight.

"Cry the Gospel with your Life"

Vivat Jesus!

Fraternal Benefits

Happy Easter! Easter is the very end of March, the 31st, so I will take this time to hope you conclude your Lenten observances with a celebration of the Resurrection!

March is Ethics Awareness Month for the insurance industry. Oxford Languages defines ethics as "moral principles that govern a person's behavior or the conducting of an activity". In many professions there is an ethical code that practitioners are to observe. In medicine, we've boiled down the Hippocratic oath to, "First, do no harm." Attorneys have the American Bar Association's "Model Rules of Professional Conduct." In psychology there are codes of conduct for both treatment and for research. The insurance industry is no different. Here at the Knights of Columbus, I think all members are familiar with our founding principles: Charity, Unity, Fraternity, and Patriotism. These have been ingrained in us. However, there are also four Core Values that all who represent the Knights subscribe to. By "represent the Knights" we include Supreme Officers, employees, independent contractors like me, and other vendors and contractors who are expected to live up to our four Core Values. From our Code of Ethics and Conduct handbook the Core Values are these:

Integrity: Firm adherence to ethics, honesty, and moral code.

Professionalism: Promoting the highest standards in all we do.

Excellence: Leading by example and constantly striving to be the best.

Respect: Treating each other with the highest regard

I consider it an honor to be assigned to serve your council and I take seriously my responsibility to care for each of you members. Furthering Blessed Michael McGivney's vision of caring for the widow and orphan is my goal. I hope to always live up to these Core Values in all my work with the council and with each and every one of you.

Vivat Jesus!

SUPREME COUNCIL INFORMATION

FAITH

In the weeks after Russia's February 22, 2022, invasion of Ukraine, hundreds of thousands of refugees poured across the border into Poland and were met by an outpouring of support. Polish Knights of Columbus set up heated tents where Ukrainians entering Poland, mostly women and children, received a warm welcome, food and drink. These Knights of Columbus Mercy Centers were soon expanded with assistance from the Order's Ukraine Solidarity Fund, providing additional humanitarian aid and space for rest and prayer.

"We served 300,000 refugees at these centers," explained Supreme Knight Patrick Kelly in two four four five three zero six the documentary in Solidarity of Ukraine, which premiered in February. "Our goal was to serve them in all their material needs, but also to help them spiritually and emotionally with the trauma that many of them had experienced."

Hidden Member Number: Somewhere in this issue is the seven digit membership number of one lucky Knight. The number is spelled out in words. If you are that lucky member, a prize awaits you if you contact the Grand Knight before the next issue of the Knight Cap. Thomas J. Trzupsek could have been a winner had he noticed his number in the previous issue. Good Luck!
